

VASANTA COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

वसंत महिला महाविद्यालय

Admitted to the Privileges of Banaras Hindu University
Krishnamurti Foundation India, Rajghat Fort, Varanasi - 221 001

Estd: 1913

E-mail : vasantakfi@rediffmail.com
vcwki.rajghat@gmail.com
Tel. No.: +91-542-2441187, 2440408
Website : vasantakfi.ac.in

DEPARTMENT of A.I.H.C. & ARCH.

Course Name	Course Code	Course Outcome
Political History of India (Circa 600 B.C. - 300 A.D.)	BAA -111	This course introduces to the students a gradual evolution of ancient Indian polity from the age of Mahājanapadas to the age of foreign incursions during the Pre-Gupta period.
Political History of India (Circa 300 A.D.- 750 A.D.)	BAA -112	This course discusses the political history of India from the age of Imperial Guptas to the mid-8th century A.D. The political history of India under the Gupta dynasty is to be studied in detail
Political History of North India (Circa 750 A.D. - 12th Century A.D.)	BAA- 121	This course introduces to the students the general features of political history of North India from mid-8th century to 12th century A.D. This age witnesses the emergence of various local and regional dynasties in North India
Political History of South India (Circa 750 A.D. - 13 th Century A.D.)	BAA-122	This course introduces to the students the general features of political history of South India from 750 A.D. to 12th century A.D. This region did not witness the foreign invasions but saw the efflorescence of many dynasties and some very prominent kings.
Ancient Indian Religions : Vedic and Purāṅic Religion	BAA-211	This course introduces to the students the basic ideas and features of ancient Indian religions as manifested through Vedas and Purāṅas. Beginning with the primitive religious beliefs, the Vedic pantheon and sacrifices are focused upon.
Ancient Indian Religions: Śramaṅic-Jainism and Buddhism	BAA-212	This course introduces to the students the basic features of the Śramaṅa traditions which include within its fold Buddhism and Jainism.
Ancient Indian Social Life and Institutions	BAA-221	This course introduces to the students the basic social ideas and institutions of ancient India.

Ancient Indian Economic Life and Institutions	BAA-222	This course introduces to the students the idea that it is the economic condition of any society which throws light upon the plight of common people. Beginning with the primitive economy and traversing through the Mauryan and Gupta stages.
Early Indian Art and Architecture (From Beginning to Gupta Period)	BAA-311	This Course introduces to the students the glorious tradition of Indian art and architecture from its very early phase.
Art and Architecture of Early Medieval India	BAA-312	The art and architecture of early medieval India is characterized by the development of different temple forms.
Concept and Methods of History Writing in Ancient India	BAA-313	Indian history which is not bereft of historical writings is sought to be established through this course.

Course Name	Course Code	Course Outcome
India's Cultural Contact with Outside World	BAA -314	This course introduces to the students a general study of cultural contact of ancient India with outside world. It primarily focuses on the study of historical geography, religion, art and architecture, language and literature of Central Asia, Afghanistan, China, Tibet, Sri Lanka, Burma, Cambodia and Indonesia. This impact got manifested basically in the form of the spread of Buddhism in these regions.
Early History of India (From Origin of Man to the development of Jana and Janapadas)	BAA -315	This course introduces to the students the early history of man since his advent on this planet upto the use of iron in India.
Legal Institutions in Ancient India	BAA- 316	This paper introduces to the students the meaning and significance of legal ideas and institutions of ancient India. Origin and concept of Hindu Law forms the subject matter
Ancient Indian Polity and Administration	BAA-321	Nature of polity and administration and also the idea of state in ancient India are brought to the fore through this course.
Ancient Indian Palaeography and Epigraphy	BAA-322	Epigraphy, an important source of historical reconstruction, needs no argument. This course introduces to the students the significance and reliability of some of the important Indian inscriptions

Ancient Indian Numismatics	BAA-323	The basic thrust of this course is to establish the relevance and significance of Numismatic studies in ancient Indian history.
Ancient Civilizations (Bronze Age to Iron Age)	BAA-324	In this paper an attempt has been made to unravel different facets of ancient Egyptian, Sumerian, Babylonian and Chinese civilizations. In the process of cultural development, as the requirements of the society increased, craft and trade activities intensified at several centers in old world. In due course of time a drastic change appeared in every sphere of life, be it social structure, religion, science and technology, settlement pattern, trade and commerce.
Principles and Methods of Archaeology	BAA-325	This course introduces to the students the basic concept of Archaeology. Students have to study history of Indian Archaeology, Methods of Data retrieval, Chronology and Dating Methods, Documentation and Conservation and Preservation of Archaeological objects.
History of Science and Technology in Ancient India)	BAA-326	Science exists since the dawn of man on the earth. Physical, biological and medicinal sciences have prevailed from the evolution of universe. Later, astronomy, mathematics, etc. evolved in accordance to the need of society and became an integral part of day to day activity, paving the way for modern scientific achievements.